

The 2016 Virginia BioBlitz

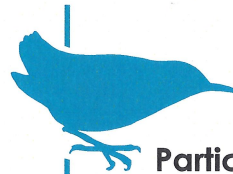

Saturday, April 23

Have fun discovering and learning while you contribute to science!

Help the Virginia Geographic Alliance with a statewide BioBlitz, a surveying event promoting geography and other natural and life sciences.

Volunteers, students and community partners will record all plants, animals, insects and other species at a specific time to help create a species inventory for the state.

Participate in the 2016 Virginia BioBlitz at the Great Dismal Swamp!

On Saturday, April 23 and as part of the 2016 Great Dismal Swamp Birding Festival you can participate in the 2016 Virginia BioBlitz at our Washington Ditch entrance.

Time: 9:00a to 2:00p

Place: Washington Ditch Boardwalk Trail. 3076 White Marsh Road, Suffolk, VA

Register: On site and in advance (see below)

How to get involved

Register today:

<http://tinyurl.com/VGABioBlitz2016>

For more information:

www.inaturalist.org/projects/va-bioblitz-2016

Twitter:

#Bioblitz2016

@VAGeogAlliance

#VABioblitz2016

@VAStateParks

